PLACES OF WORSHIP IN HARLEM

On matter of faith, culture or denomination, for Harlem's churches, tis the season to celebrate! One can attend a service, a mass or a cantata. Or one can celebrate Thanksgiving, the Advent, Christmas or Kwanzaa. And one can herald in the New Year in church in Harlem. Churches offer a variety of spectacles and pageantry that proclaim the reigning peace, happiness and glory of the season. Harlem congregations invite the public to participate in the many Holiday events from Thanksgiving in November to Three Kings Day in January.

The many cultures and faiths of Harlemites are celebrated with many different rites and rituals that reinforce the reason for the season. Candles, wreaths, incense, and Christmas music fill the temples and sanctuaries. Whether celebrating the Birth of Christ or the Seven Principles of Kwanzaa, Harlem commemorates with song, service and sacred celebration. The inaugural event is the Thanksgiving Day service. Often baskets of food or holiday meals are shared with the community. The beginning of the Holy Days starts with Advent, approximately two weeks before Christmas Day. To celebrate the beginning of the Advent season, most Catholic, Episcopal and Methodist churches have a candle lighting service featuring chorales and liturgical music.

The Holiday season in Harlem's multicultural neighborhoods affords many occasions to "go churchin'." It is a time to enjoy family and community as the old year ends and the new year unfolds. Usually, at the end of the season, Harlem's Churches will once again invite congregations to pray in the New Year during the New Year's Eve Watch Night Service. For specific details on holiday services, contact the church of your choice.

Below is a listing of churches in the Harlem neighborhood from 104th Street up to 146th on the East side and 110th Street up to 181st Street on the West side. The info below is based on what we had available at press time. If your church is not listed or information below is incorrect, please contact the Harlem News immediately to give us an update. Contact us by email at harlemnewsinc@aol.com, fax: 212-996-6010 and phone 212-996-6006. We will maintain a complete listing of places of worship in Harlem on our website as of December 2011.
